

1st. The actual cost of the removal of the tribe from the Bosque Redondo reservation to the reservation say $50,000.

2nd. The purchase of 15,000 sheep and goats at a cost not to exceed $30,000.

3rd. The purchase of 500 beef cattle and 1 million pounds of corn, to be collected and held at the military post nearest the reservation, subject to the order of the agent, for the relief of the needy during the coming winter.

4th. The balance, if any, of the appropriation to be invested for the maintenance of the Indian spending their removal, in such manner as the agent who is with them may determine.

5th. The removal of this tribe to be made under the supreme control and the direction of the military commander of the Territory of New Mexico, and when completed, the management of the Tribe to revert to the proper agent.

Article XIII. The tribe herein named, by their representatives, parties to this treaty, agree to make the reservation herein described their permanent home, and they will not as a tribe make any permanent settlement elsewhere, reserving the rights to hunt on the lands adjoining the said reservation formerly called theirs, subject to the modifications named in this treaty and the orders of the commander of the department in which said reservation may be for the time being; and it is further agreed and understood by the parties to this treaty, that if any Navajo Indian or Indians shall leave the reservation herein described to settle elsewhere, he or they forfeit all the rights, privileges, and annuities conferred by the terms of this treaty; and it is further agreed by the parties to this treaty, that they will do all they can to induce Indians now away from reservations set apart for the exclusive use and occupation of the Indians, leading a nomadic life, or engaged in war against the people of the United States, to abandon such a life and settle permanently in one of the territorial reservations set apart for the exclusive use and the occupation of the Indians.

In testimony of all which said parties have hereunto, on this the 1st day of June, 1868, at Fort Sumner, in the Territory of New Mexico, set their hands and seals.

Delgado, Inoetenito, Juan, Francisco, Guero, Herrero, Torivio, Narbano, Gugadore, Juan Martin, Desdendado, Cabason, Grande and Cabares Colorados.

□ 1615

Mr. Speaker, I thank you for allowing me the time to read this historic treaty on its anniversary 130 years later. It is my concern that the government of the United States keep the intent of this treaty as it was originally signed by the Navajos to provide for those elements of education and for the preservation of their territorial lands.
